

Ad hoc press release

Binder+Co to transfer to the Third Market of the Vienna Stock Exchange

Gleisdorf, December 10, 2009. Binder+Co AG has been listed on the mid market of the Vienna Stock Exchange since June 2007. Now, within the mid market segment, the company is to transfer from regulated free trading to the Third Market. The decision regarding this switch was agreed by the Management Board at its meeting of today and relates to a general optimisation of resources focused on the strategic further development of the company.

Accordingly, the Vienna Stock Exchange was today informed that as per January 15, 2010 (daily business), Binder+Co AG will withdraw its shares from regulated free trading and simultaneously apply for the admission of the shares to the Third Market within the mid market segment with effect from January 15, 2010 (daily business).
